2020 Season Summary

PAYING TRIBUTE: On April 14, Yankees General Partner and Co-Chairperson Henry G. "Hank" Steinbrenner passed away at his home in Clearwater, Fla., from a longstanding health issue…he was 63 years old…for the entire 2020 season, the Yankees wore a patch on the left sleeve of their home and road uniforms in his memory.

BEST OF THE BEST: After more than two years of assessments and reviews, the Yankee Stadium Home and Visiting Team Clubhouses and Family Lounges received the first-ever WELL Building Standard Certification for a Sports and Entertainment facility worldwide, presented by the International Well Building Institute (IWBI)…the WELL Building Standard is a performance-based system for measuring, certifying, and monitoring features of the built environment that impact human health and well-being, through 10 concepts in WELL v2 that are comprised of features with distinct health intents: air, water, nourishment, light, movement, thermal comfort, sound, materials, mind, and community…with this certification, the Yankees have the healthiest clubhouse environments in sports…the team is also in the process of also becoming the first sports venue in the world to achieve the IWBI Health and Safety Rating for operations related to protecting against COVID-19.

BACK IN ACTION: The Yankees played an abbreviated season for the seventh time in franchise history in 2020, and posted a winning record for the sixth time in those seven seasons…their Opening Day win on 7/23 at Washington was Baseball's first game in 2020 and marked the latest-ever start to any Major League campaign (all prior seasons started before the end of April).

ABOVE BOARD: The Yankees clinched their 28th consecutive winning record (since 1993)…is the second-longest such stretch in Major League history behind only the franchise's streak of 39 straight winning seasons from 1926-64…is the fourth-longest streak of consective winning seasons all-time in the four major sports (MLB/NFL/NBA/NHL) behind only their own 39-season stretch, 32 straight winning seasons by the Montreal Canadiens (1952-83) and 29 straight by the Boston Bruins (1968-96).

RACE TO THE FINISH: The Yankees made the postseason for the fourth consecutive season (since 2017)…is their 22nd trip to the postseason in the last 26 years (since 1995)…Manager Aaron Boone is the sixth manager in Baseball history to reach the postseason in each of his first three managerial seasons, joining Hughie Jennings (1907-09 w/ Detroit), Ralph Houk (1961-63 w/ the Yankees), Larry Dierker (1997-99 w/ Houston), Ron Gardenhire (2002-04 w/ Minnesota) and Mike Matheny (2012-15 w/ St. Louis, four straight)…is the fourth manager to make the playoffs in his first three seasons with the Yankees, joining Houk (above), Casey Stengel (first five from 1949-53) and Joe Torre (first 12 from 1996-2007).

A BRONX TALE: The Yankees went 22-9 (.710) at Yankee Stadium, the Majors' third-best home record (Minnesota, 24-7, .774 and Houston, 20-8, .714)…marked their highest season winning percentage at home at the current Yankee Stadium (since 2009), surpassing their .704 (57-24) mark in both 2009 and '19.

The 1923 Yankees — The first World Series-winning team in franchise history

Led by Manager Miller Huggins, the 1923 Yankees went 98-54 during the regular season before winning the first World Series in franchise history, 4-games-to-2 over the New York Giants. The season was a turning point for the Yankees in many ways, most notably because it marked the inaugural season of the original Yankee Stadium. The victory also established the Yankees as New York City's dominant team after losses to John McGraw's Giants in the prior two Fall Classics, 5-games-to-3 in 1921 and 4-games-to-0 (with one tie) in 1922.

1962 World Series MVP Ralph Terry is carried off the field following his complete-game, 1-0 win in Game 7 at Candlestick Park over the San Francisco Giants. During the Series he went 2-1 in three starts, allowing just 5ER in 25.0IP with two walks and 16 strikeouts. The title was the Yankees' second in a row and their 10th in a 16-year span dating to 1947. For Terry, his clutch Game 7 performance was a measure of redemption. Two years earlier he allowed Bill Mazeroski's Game 7, World Series-winning, "walk-off" home run, which gave Pittsburgh the 1960 championship even though the Pirates had been outscored by the Yankees, 55-27, over the course of the Series.

Postseason Awards

ALCS and World Series MVP Awards are issued by Major League Baseball in a voting process involving MLB officials and select reporters. Yankees winners are listed below.

Additionally, the New York Baseball Writers Association established its own award—the Babe Ruth Award—in 1949, one year after the slugger's death. From 1949 through 2006 it was given to the top player in the World Series. Since 2007, it has been awarded to the best player in the postseason (including all rounds). Former Yankees winners of the Babe Ruth Award are: Joe Page (1949), Jerry Coleman (1950), Phil Rizzuto (1951), Johnny Mize (1952), Billy Martin (1953), Don Larsen (1956), Elston Howard (1958), Whitey Ford (1961), Ralph Terry (1962), Reggie Jackson (1977), Bucky Dent (1978), Cecil Fielder (1996), Scott Brosius (1998), Mariano Rivera (1999), Derek Jeter (2000) and Alex Rodriguez (2009).
